If you do not see the inquiry type you are looking for, the timeframe to submit that type of inquiry may have expired.

Inquiry: We also believe the arbitrator improperly raised a damage dispute.

Please file one PDI per case only. If there is more than one inquiry type, choose the main inquiry type and then include details about additional types here:

Post-Decision Inquiries in Total Recovery Solution® (TRS®)

- Inquiries made after a decision have always been limited to specific time frames, which continues with TRS.
- TRS conditionally allows the PDI options that appear; if an inquiry type is not available, it means the time frame to submit that inquiry has expired.
- The PDI process in TRS, with its built-in constraints, eliminates the possibility of submitting expired inquiries.
- The following message will appear if the time to make the inquiry has expired: If you do not see the inquiry type you are looking for, the timeframe to submit that type of inquiry has expired.
- Below is a refresher on time limitations for types of PDIs:
